

White Wines

Terra Noble Chardonnay	Casablanca Valley, Chile, 2006	$38
Full, crisp chardonnay with tropical fruit hints and oak finish
Angove Viognier	Australia 2006	$39
A vibrant white with complex citrus, no oak.
Piko Sauvignon Blanc Marlborough, New Zealand	2006	$41
Robust style Sauvignon Blanc typical of New Zealand
Kris Pinot Grigio	Alto Adige, Italy, 2006	$41
Refreshingly crisp with soft fruit hints
Dr. Loosen Riesling	Mosel-Saar-Ruwer, Germany, 2006	$42
Very fruit forward Reisling. Great alternative to white Zinfandel
Argillae	Orvieto, Italy 2006	$42
The picturesque hilltown of Orvieto produces this refreshing crisp, dry white wine
Mt. Eden Chardonnay	Edna Valley, CA 2005	$48
Round and lush with full finish
Don Nicanor Chardonnay/Viognier	Mendoza, Argentina 2007	$44
A perfect marriage of chardonnay and viognier producing a wine with the depth of Chardonnay and the citrus of viognier. A reserve wine with full oak finish
Chateau Haut Rian	Bordeaux, France 2005	$41
Citrus and lemon grass fill out this rich French white
Martinsancho Verdejo	Rueda, Spain, 2006	$50
Lovely Spanish wine almost a cross between a big Sauvignon Blanc and a light Chardonnay. Nice alternative to the typical whites
Abbazia Di Novacella Pinot Grigio	Alto Adige, Italy, 2006	$61
All that most pinot grigio try to strive for is in this wine. Deeply concentrated with flavor, this is a serious pinot grigio.
Loimer Gruner Veltliner	Kamptal, Austria 2005	$49
Austria's predominant grape produces a very complimenting food wine. Medium body with crisp finish
Terredora Falanghina	Italy 2006	$46
Comparable to Pinot Grigio. Falanghina is a medium-bodied white you will fall in love with
Vasse Felix Chardonnay	Margaret River, Australia, 2005	$44
Full-bodied with aromas of apricot and vanilla. Balanced oak on finish
Louis Jadot Pouilly Fuisse	Burgundy, France, 2006	$58
This infamous French wine is elegant, medium bodied with no oak.
Brogia "La Meirana" Cortese Gavi, Italy,	2006	$60
With aromas of fall pear, this Italian grape "Cortese" is medium bodied, fruity yet dry on finish. A nice change from Pinot Grigio.
Clos Du Val Chardonnay	Carneros, CA 2005	$61
Balance and grace best describe this wine with hints of crème brulé and tropical fruit
Jean Chartron "Premier Cru"	Saint Aubin, France, 2005	$88
Almond, vanilla, lemon, oak. This Premier Cru is a definite mouthful!
Franciscan Cuvee Sauvage, Oakville Estate Chardonnay	CA, 2005	$93
Wild yeast fermentation leads to a rich, intense, elegant and untamed chardonnay
Francois Gavnoux Meursault	Burgundy, France 2004	$120
A widely sought after winemaking town, this meursault is broad on the nose, soft on the mid-palate and elegant on the finish.

Sparkling & Dessert Wines

Banfi Rosa Regale – "half bottle"	Italy, 2004	$35
Great for dessert, buttery sparkling red, hints of strawberry and raspberry
Kenwood Cuve Brut		$35
A very charming, floral yet dry brut California champagne
Perrier Jouet Champagne, France		$88
Exceptional flavor, elegant finish. What a way to start the evening!
Veuve Cliquot	Champagne, France	$96
French-style Brut with slight yeast hints and lovely tiny bubbles
Nino Franco Prosecco	Veneto, Italy	$44
Light gold in color, bouquet of aromatic fruit. Crisp, dry and elegant with delicate fruit flavors
